Senior Experten Service (SES)
Foundation of German Industry for International Cooperation

The Senior Experten Service (SES) is Germany’s leading volunteering organisation for experts and executives who are either retired or taking some time off work (Weltdienst 30+). SES is supported by top business organisations in Germany and also receives funding from the German government.

Expertise made in Germany
SES has completed 30,000 international assignments since 1983. It provides support around the globe, helping small and medium-sized businesses, public authorities, professional and business associations, social and medical facilities, and institutions which provide education or training.

More than 12,000 experts are listed with the SES. They provide assistance in all industries and sectors, helping to solve technical, economic and organisational problems, delivering in-house training and coaching specialists in line with the German model of cooperative education.

Ask us!
SES offers rapid, affordable, practical, on-site support which is tailored to your needs. SES assignments last for an average of four to six weeks. The maximum duration is six months. Click here to submit an request for assignment.

Cost
Even voluntary assistance costs money - but the costs are low and the funds are put to good use. More than 90 per cent of SES assignments achieve their objective. Please note that many of the assignments completed by SES are eligible for public funding. Click here for more information.
